EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Sheldon Heber on 2/21/2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claims 12, 14, 17, 18, 22 and 23.

In claim 20, part (b), change "affect" to "inhibit".

In claim 20, part (b), after "RNA polymerase activity" add "and thereby identifying an HCV RNA-dependent RNA polymerase inhibitor."

Additionally it is noted that the title of the patent application has been changed to more accurately reflect the subject invention. The new title reads " Method for Identifying a HCV RNA-dependent RNA polymerase Inhibitor".

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: As stated in the reasons for allowance in this applications parent application, while the prior art (Tomei et al., Journal of Virology 67(7): 4017-4026, July 1993) teaches that the Hepatitis C virus (HCV) is considered to be the major etiologic agent of post-transfusion non-A, non-B hepatitis and that the NS5 region of the HCV polyprotein contains a GDD sequence characteristic of an RNA-dependent RNA polymerase (RdRp), the prior art does not specifically teach that the NS5B protein produced is enzymatically active, and based on the evidence that the NS5 protein is cleaved into two smaller products of 47 and 65 kDa, unlike that of flavivirus, there is not a reasonable expectation that the NS5b protein (p65, corresponding to SEQ ID NO; 1 from the HCV polyprotein) possesses RNA-dependent RNA polymerase activity.

Art Unit: 1652

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Richard G. Hutson whose telephone number is 571-272-0930. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 7:00-4:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Nashaat T. Nashed can be reached on 571-272-0934. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
